

NATIONAL WORLD WAR I MUSEUM 2008 ACCESSIONS TO THE COLLECTIONS

DORAN L. CART, CURATOR
JONATHAN CASEY, MUSEUM ARCHIVIST

All accessions are donations unless otherwise noted. An accession is defined as something added to the permanent collections of the National World War I Museum. Each accession represents a separate “transaction” between donor (or seller) and the Museum. An accession can consist of one item or hundreds of items.

Format = museum accession number + donor + brief description. For reasons of privacy, the city and state of the donor are not included here. For further information, contact dcart@theworldwar.org or jcasey@theworldwar.org.
