

FUTURE

Welcome! There is a lot to see at the National WWI Museum and Memorial. In order to complete the hunt, you will need to explore carefully (Please remember not to use the Museum walls or glass cases when writing your answers). Have fun!

East Gallery:

1. What color was the Algerian mounted troop's jacket?

6. Why did Italian soldiers need snowshoes?

2. Find the South African kilt. How has it been altered?

7. How did Scottish Highlanders protect their kilts from mud?

3. Why were German 15 cm Heavy Field Howitzers called "Jack Johnsons"?

8. What was the nickname given to sewing kits by British and French soldiers?

4. Which troops used a "flying pig" in battle?

5. What purpose did trench periscopes serve?

9. Find the Imperial Russian Red Cross Society flag. Which regiment flew this?

West Gallery:

10. How much bread did the US Food Administration ask homes to save? How did they spread this message?

13. Which Native American tribe provided communication code during the war?

11. Which state sent the most soldiers to the war?

14. Where might a Doughboy keep a spoon, just in case he came across unexpected food?

12. American troops were nicknamed “Doughboys”. Name two other suggested nicknames.

15. Who used “splinter goggles”? What was their purpose?

Consider the artifacts and information you located at the Museum. What trends do you recognize?

1. Name two ways the Great War differed from prior wars. Why did these changes occur?

2. How were civilians affected by the war? In what ways were they involved?

3. The sphinxes that guard the Memorial are named Memory and Future. Looking back to 1914-1919, what would Americans recall in their collective memory? What might be considerations for the post-war future?

4. There are four statues at the top of the Liberty Memorial Tower. These Guardians of the Flame are the Spirits of Honor, Courage, Patriotism and Sacrifice. What did you find at the Museum that represent each of these spirits?
