

For more information

Denise Rendina
National World War I Museum
816-888-8102
drendina@theworldwar.org

For publication: 816-888-8100
Digital photos available upon request

Twitter-ready Statement: All tickets only $7 on Mon., Jan 21! Open from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. www.theworldwar.org #MLKDay #KansasCity

Special Hours and Discounted Admission to the National World War I Museum on Martin Luther King, Jr., Day

On Monday, Jan. 21, 2013, the National World War I Museum at Liberty Memorial will be open from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. with $7 admission for Martin Luther King, Jr., Day. No coupon is necessary and no other discounts apply.

Tickets are good for two consecutive days and allow visitors access to all galleries, special exhibitions and the Liberty Memorial Tower. During the winter months, the Museum is open Tuesday through Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. as well as on national holidays that fall on a Monday.

Special Exhibitions

Panthéon de la Guerre: From Paris to the Chicago World's Fair to Kansas City

On view in Memory Hall through Feb. 3, 2013

Through photographs, video and original wartime paintings, explore the remarkable history of this famous, large-scale painting that has been on display in Memory Hall for more than 50 years, and view sections excised from the painting that have not been seen by the public since 1940. Included with Museum admission and free for members.

World War I All-Stars: Sports & the Inter-Allied Games

On view in Exhibit Hall through March 31, 2013

Discover the important role sports played in the lives of servicemen during and after World War I. Learn about the 1919 Inter-Allied Games, an athletic competition billed as “the greatest Olympic event the world has ever seen,” as well as American baseball players and other famous athletes who served in the Great War. Included with Museum admission and free for members. This exhibition is made possible through the generosity of Pioneer Services, Courtney S. Turner Trust and the Neighborhood Tourist Development Fund.

For more information on the National World War I Museum at Liberty Memorial visit www.theworldwar.org.

#